

A Prayer of Devotion

Unveiled

To the Wordless

The Gospel According to Matthew Chapter Eleven · Verse Twenty-Five

THE VERSE · KING JAMES VERSION

At that time Jesus answered and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes.

BLOOMED RENDERING · THE PRAYER FORM

In that ripe moment, Jesus answered and said:
I confess you openly, Father —
I speak out what is already true of you —
Lord of heaven, Lord of earth:

that you hid these things
from the wise and from the understanding, and unveiled them to the wordless —
to infants without a word to their name, and without a wall.

THE GREEK SOURCE · TEXTUS RECEPTUS

Ἐν ἐκείνῳ τῷ καιρῷ ἀποκριθεὶς ὁ Ἰησοῦς εἶπεν· Ἐξομολογοῦμαί σοι, πάτερ, κύριε τοῦ οὐρανοῦ καὶ τῆς γῆς, ὅτι ἔκρυψας ταῦτα ἀπὸ σοφῶν καὶ συνετῶν, καὶ ἀπεκάλυψας αὐτὰ νηπίοις·

En ekeinō tō kairō apokritheis ho Iēsous eipen: Exomologoumai soi, pater, kyrie tou ouranou kai tēs gēs, hoti ekrypsas tauta apo sophōn kai synetōn, kai apekalypsas auta nēpiois

καιρῷ · kairō

the ripe moment — kairos, not chronos. Not a point on the clock but the moment when conditions have come right. The thanksgiving is dated by ripeness.

Ἐξομολογοῦμαι · exomologoumai

I confess-out-the-same — ek + homo + legō, speak-out-the-same. One verb serves both sin-confession and praise, because each is speaking out what is already true.

Praise is accuracy, said aloud.

πάτερ, κύριε τοῦ οὐρανοῦ καὶ τῆς γῆς · pater, kyrie tou ouranou kai tēs gēs

Father, Lord of heaven and earth — the double address: intimacy first, total jurisdiction second. The one who owns both realms is the one who chooses where to be received.

ἐκρύψας · ekrypsas

you hid — aorist active, from kryptō, root of cryptic. The hiding is deliberate divine action, not accidental obscurity. The same hand does the hiding and the unveiling.

σοφῶν καὶ συνετῶν · sophōn kai synetōn

the wise and the understanding — sophos, accumulated learning; synetos, the putting-together-of-parts. Both real achievements; both named as the failure mode. The intelligence strong enough to build the filter is the filter.

ἀπεκάλυψας · apekalypsas you unveiled — apokalyptō, the uncovering, root of apocalypse. Revelation is not information added but covering removed — and it lands where no covering was built.

νηπίοις · nēpiois

the wordless-infants — nē + epos, the not-yet-worded. No vocabulary, no argument, no wall. Reception arrives unmediated because nothing stands at the gate.

THE RECOVERY

The English I thank thee... hast revealed them unto babes keeps the sweetness and loses the scandal —

- exomologoumai as praise-by-accurate-naming
- ekrypsas as deliberate hiding, not accident
- sophōn kai synetōn as the filter that blocks at the gate
- nēpiois as the wordless: no argument, no wall

The same Father deliberately hides and deliberately unveils, and the sorting key is not merit but walls: the mind that filters at the gate cannot receive what the wordless receive whole. Jesus does not lament the arrangement — he gives thanks over it.

RESONANCES

1 Corinthians 1:27

God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise — Paul running the same sorting from the other side.

Matthew 18:3

Except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter — the nēpios-mode as the entry condition, not a concession.

Psalm 8:2

Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings hast thou ordained strength — the verse Jesus quotes in the temple courts; the wordless as ordained witnesses.

Hebrews 10:20

The freshly-slain and living way through the veil — tonight's companion: there the obstruction is the curtain; here it is the filter. Two obstructions, one opening.

PRACTITIONER'S RESPONSE · A PRAYER TO SAY

Father, Lord of heaven and earth — take down the wall my cleverness built.
Let me receive as the wordless receive:
whole, unfiltered, and glad.
